

Anna Steele is a performer, instructor, and choreographer from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where she has been dancing since the age of 3. Beginning her training at Elite Dance Academy, Anna has danced competitively in various styles such as ballet/pointe, jazz, tap, lyrical, modern/contemporary, hip hop, and acro, eventually graduating from Airborne Dance Centre. Anna currently performs with the Calgary Stampede's Outriders cheer team as well as the Calgary Roughnecks Drill Crew dance team. In addition to performing, Anna teaches a variety of styles at several studios across Calgary; she loves to share her knowledge and passion for dance with her students, while incorporating her own unique style.
