

M'Kayla (Ma-kai-la) Kongnetiman is Mohkinstsis/Calgary-based multidisciplinary dance artist, singer & emerging choreographer, who is known for sharing her love of music & dance with as many people as she can. Her artistic journey began at the age of three after she took her first ballet class and never looked back. She began training in various genres of dance competitively from the age of 5-17 where she was given the opportunity to perform & compete across the world at various dance competitions, conventions & intensives.

M'Kayla is currently studying at The University of Calgary, working towards a Bachelor of Arts in Dance, as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. She is also currently completing the Professional Training Program at Decidedly Jazz Danceworks. As a first generation Canadian with first generation immigrant parents that were born in Suriname, South America, M'Kayla often utilizes her technical training by incorporating aspects of her everyday life to express herself through movement. Choreographing is something that M'Kayla has always had passion for, and she hopes to spread her knowledge to others as well as to continue to learn and grow from others throughout her artistic journey.

