

Candice Mathewson is the proud Owner and Artistic Director of Elite Dance Academy. Candice began her journey in dance at the age of 4. Some major highlights of her dance career include participating in the World Championships in Tap for Team Canada and attending the prestigious National Ballet School in Toronto. Candice spent seven years working with the Calgary Stampeder Outriders, four years as a dancer and three years as their coach and choreographer. She has trained in professional courses in New York, Las Vegas, Vancouver, and Toronto. Formal instruction includes her completion of the ISTD (Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing) Associate Exam and Diploma in Imperial Ballet.

Above all, Candice has a love for dance and for teaching. She prides herself and her staff on professionalism, enthusiasm and ultimately creating a positive learning environment for all. Outside of the studio, Candice is 'Mom' to three daughters. Her priority (through herself and all staff) is to teach confidence, self-awareness, team dedication and excellent dance training to all students.

