

Mackenzie Hollinger is a passionate, experienced, and diverse dance teacher from Calgary, Alberta. She is certified in ADAPT (Tap & Jazz) and Acrobatic Arts (Modules 1 & 2) and has her Associate in Ballet with the ISTD. She is also a former faculty member of the Acro Dance Teachers Association (ADTA) where she gained a great deal of knowledge in Acro Dance.

She spent two years training with illFX Education for hip hop and previously danced with Esira, a Calgary-based contemporary performance group. In 2023, she began her dance adjudicating journey. Mackenzie has over 25 years of dance experience and has loved every moment of it.

Mackenzie is also part of the acting community and has a Theatre Performance Diploma from Mount Royal University (MRU). She has been involved with multiple theatre and musical theatre productions over the years and has enjoyed working with so many wonderful individuals in this field. Most recently, Mackenzie spent a session teaching Musical Theatre For Young People at Storybook Theatre.

On top of her Theatre Performance Diploma, Mackenzie has a Bachelor of Business Administration in General Management from MRU and has experience in management and marketing. With her background in business, she currently co-owns and operates an Alberta-based dance competition.

Mackenzie is passionate about instilling strong foundational technique in her dancers as well as cultivating solid relationships with her colleagues and students. She is passionate about building up each dancer and finding everything that makes them special, both as a dancer and as a person.

